IN NEW COLONIES OF UNITED STATES

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

At least forty American lawyers are endeavoring to earn a living in Manila.

Since the American occupation over 400 saloons have been opened in Manila.

Montana soldiers have found indications of gold while at work in the trenches.

Malolos is less than thirty miles from Manila, yet day after day the American columns advanced through towns and cities from 1000 to 10,000 population.

A Furman Hedden has established a monthly magazine known as the Philippine Monthly. Wood cuts of scenes of interest in the Island of Luzon are produced, and stories by naval officers and others are published.

Spanish officers are returning home, and all have large quantities of native gold, which they say is plentiful in the mountain streams.

A soldier of the Twentieth Kansas tells this story at the expense of a fellow-soldier: "When we were sent out on the firing line Pete Bogan was lying behind a tree, out of the way of bullets. All at once he yelled out like a wild man: 'Captain, I cannot stand these damned ants biting me all the time!' Zip! A bullet passed close to his body. 'On second thoughts, Captain,' he yelled, 'I can stand them!'"

IN PUERTO RICO.

English dictionaries are in greater demand than any other commodity.

More than half of the Puerto Ricans live on less than five cents a day.

Skilled laborers, such as bricklayers, carpenters and plumbers, earn 60 cents a day.

Rents have gone up in San Juan, and prices of real estate have mounted skyward.

"Polygamy exists to a great extent," says Charles F. Saylor. "It is not uncommon for one man to have two or three families."

Until a few weeks ago prisoners wore shackles that had been welded on their limbs. But Gen. Henry gave the order that the shackles should be filed off and no more cruelty practiced.

IN GUAM.

Daily concerts are to be given by the Governor's band.

American immigration has been infinitesimal since the island was captured.

Regular steamship communication with the United States has not yet been established.

Nine-tenths of the islanders can read and write, and it is reported that they are rapidly learning English.

IN CUBA.

Baseball games are played daily.

Pl is the name of the editor of the Mensajero Catolico.

Traces of gold have been found in the province of Puerto Principe.

Five Havana newspapers advocate annexation to the United States.

The Havana Advertiser says that what the city most needs is a S. P. C. A.

Saloonkeepers complain because they cannot sell liquors to private soldiers.

Half a dozen American women are earning a living as stenographers in Havana.

There are fifty-four ports in the island, but only fifteen are open to the world's commerce.

For the first time in the memory of the oldest inhabitant there is no yellow fever in Havana.

Women are now able to dine alone in restaurants—a thing that was never possible under the old regime.

Fitting work for women is scarce. Cooking and washing is monopolized by men. American employment of women in the Havana Postoffice has been received with disapproval by the men.

A NEW INVENTION.

Axel Orling, a Swede, has invented a remarkable contrivance for steering a torpedo from shore or ship without any material connection between it and the operator. He gave a private demonstration of the workings of his invention in London last month. In one room Mr. Orling fixed up a model torpedo fitted with a rudder like a fish's tail, while his controlling apparatus was in an adjoining chamber; and though there were a couple of partition walls between the two objects, the spectators were surprised to see the rudder of the torpedo turning to starboard or port at the will of the operator. The principle of this invention consists in the transmission of motor force by means of waves of light, similar to the X rays. The steering influence is operated over a frontage of about 100 yards in a distance of two miles, and the greater the distance the longer becomes the line of controlling front. The inventor will shortly give a public demonstration of the value of his invention for steering purposes at the mouth of the Thames.

MRS. LIVERMORE.

Under the impression that she is dying, at Melrose, Mass., Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the noted lecturer, has burned her unpublished writings.

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. San Francisco, California.

The attention of those having capital to invest is called to the fact, that no city in the United States or probably no city in the world offers better opportunities to make profitable or fortunate investments in Real Estate than does the city of San Francisco at the present time.

A great many reasons can be given why San Francisco really will advance in value from now on.

I offer my experience and knowledge of values to intending buyers of business properties or residence sites. I can submit some very desirable purchases of Real Estate that will yield a fine income and steadily advance in value.

Information cheerfully given. Parties coming from the Islands who desire to invest are requested to call. I will be happy to correspond with any who may wish to obtain information in regard to San Francisco Real Estate.

Full charge taken of property and taxes paid for absent owner.
